CHUCK GREENBERG

GENERAL PARTNER & CEO

For more than three decades, Frisco RoughRiders General Partner and CEO Chuck Greenberg has built his reputation as an innovative franchise owner and operator, corporate and sports attorney, dealmaker, advisor and expert on the business and economics of major professional sports.

Chuck's involvement with the RoughRiders began on August 20, 2014 when the ownership group he and Scott Sonju put together finalized the purchase of the franchise from Mandalay Baseball Properties. In addition to his role with the RoughRiders, he currently holds the title of Chairman and Managing Partner with the Myrtle Beach (SC) Pelicans, the Class A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs and the State College (PA) Spikes, the former Class-A Short Season affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals and current member of the MLB Draft League.

In November 2009, Chuck announced the formation of Greenberg Sports Group (GSG), which provides management, consulting and marketing services to the sports industry across the country.

Well respected across baseball, Chuck has the distinguished honor of serving as the Chairman of the Minor League Baseball Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee. During his more than two decades as an MiLB owner and operator, he has worked on various initiatives to grow the brand of baseball.

Chuck is the former Managing Partner & CEO of the Texas Rangers, a role he assumed in 2010 after his group of investors (Rangers Baseball Express, LLC), which included Baseball Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan, acquired the Major League Baseball franchise from Tom Hicks and Hicks Sports Group.

His tenure as Rangers' Managing Partner & CEO was highlighted by the club winning the American League Pennant and reaching its first World Series in the history of the franchise. Off the field, Chuck spearheaded the development of an enhanced senior management staff, overhauled the fan experience at Globe Life Park in Arlington, constructed and installed a new state-of-the-art video board, game entertainment control room and technological overhaul of Rangers Ballpark and helped re-establish a sense of trust and excitement between the franchise and community. He was also the architect of a lucrative and landmark deal with Fox Sports Southwest that has since changed the landscape of media rights deals throughout the sports industry.

Chuck's professional baseball career began in October 2001, when he led an ownership group which purchased the Double-A Eastern League's Altoona Curve. During his time as the Curve's President & Managing Partner (2002-08), the club set numerous single-game and season attendance records, continually re-invested private money into capital improvement projects at Blair County Ballpark and helped the franchise gain national stature as one of the most creative and innovative teams in professional sports.

The Curve won the prestigious Larry MacPhail Promotional Award in 2004, the 2006 Baseball America Freitas Award as the top Double-A franchise and added the highest honor bestowed annually upon a Minor League Baseball club, the John H. Johnson

President's Trophy, in 2006. Altoona became only the 11th franchise to receive all three major awards and was the first team to accomplish the feat in less than three years.

The Pittsburgh native had a long and successful career as a corporate and sports attorney. Throughout his career, he lent his expertise to the acquisition and sale of more than two dozen franchises in baseball, football, basketball, hockey, soccer and lacrosse.

Among his work in the sports industry, Chuck was instrumental in helping put together the deal that landed a group led by National Hockey League Hall of Famer Mario Lemieux and renowned businessman Ron Burkle ownership of the bankrupt Pittsburgh Penguins in 1999 and saved the franchise for Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania. In 2007, he represented Lemieux, Burkle and the Penguins in successful negotiations with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County which resulted in a deal to build a brand-new, state-of-the-art arena in downtown Pittsburgh and secure the future of the Penguins in Pittsburgh.

Chuck has been featured in numerous articles and has made frequent television and radio appearances concerning the business and economics of sports, particularly regarding sports franchises and facilities. He has also been a frequent speaker and panelist at the annual National Sports Forum and Baseball Winter Meetings. In 2008, he was named to the Sports Business Research Advisory Board at Penn State University, representing team owners in the work of the Center for Sports Business Research, which focuses on the development of first-rate academic and applied empirical research in the sports industry while helping to define educational opportunities for students looking to start careers in sports business.

He also serves as a founding member on the board of directors of the Mario Lemieux Foundation and also served on the executive committee of the Mario Lemieux Celebrity Golf Invitational, which was held for nearly 20 years. The Mario Lemieux Foundation made nearly $40 million in charitable grants, primarily in the field of cancer research, treatment and patient care.

Chuck graduated from Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh in 1978 and four years later received his B.A. from Tufts University in Massachusetts. In 1985, he graduated from the University of Michigan Law School. Chuck divides his time between Southern California and the Metroplex and has three adult sons and five grandchildren.

EXECUTIVES

SCOTT BURCHETT

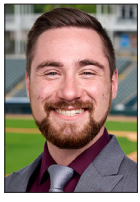
Frisco RoughRiders General Manager Scott Burchett is entering his 22nd season with the franchise. Burchett oversees all aspects of franchise operations for the Double-A baseball club including the establishment of community and corporate partnerships, ticket sales & marketing, fan entertainment, communications, facilities operations, budget management and Major League Affiliate relations. He served as the team's lead contact for nearly $8 million in capital improvements to Riders Field since the start of the 2015 season, highlighted by the construction of the award-winning Lazy River, the largest water feature in a professional sporting venue in the world.

Burchett was named the 2017 Bill Valentine Executive of the Year, which was voted on by executives representing all Texas League teams. Prior to joining the RoughRiders, Burchett worked for MLB.com. He was born and raised in Garland, Texas, and attended Baylor University. He resides in McKinney, Texas, along with his wife Caroline and their three children.

BROADCASTERS



ZACH BIGLEY

BROADCASTER, MANAGER OF MEDIA DEVELOPMENT

Bigley starts his sixth season with the RoughRiders in 2026 as the club's manager of media development and broadcaster. In his eighth season in Minor League Baseball, Bigley serves as the radio "Voice of the RoughRiders" for all RoughRiders games, works as the primary contact between the media and the front office, contributes to video production and manages the team's baseball content on the website and social media accounts.

On April 3rd, 2023, Bigley made his Major League debut on the radio, calling the Rangers vs. Orioles game on 105.3 The Fan alongside Matt Hicks.

Before moving to the Metroplex, Bigley was with the Greenberg Sports Group-owned Myrtle Beach Pelicans (High-A, Cubs) for two seasons, serving as the broadcast assistant his first year before taking over in the lead role in 2019. To open his minor league career, the Eugene, Oregon native served as the broadcast assistant for the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (High-A, Dodgers).

A proud Duck, Bigley graduated from the University of Oregon in 2017, where he majored in journalism and minored in history. While there, he was a sports director for the campus radio station, KWVA, providing play-by-play for Oregon football, basketball, volleyball, softball and acrobatics and tumbling along with local high school sports.

JACK SMITH

BROADCAST AND MEDIA RELATIONS ASSISTANT

Smith joins the RoughRiders as the Broadcast and Media Relations Assistant for the 2026 season.

He enters his second season in Minor League Baseball after spending 2025 as the broadcast assistant for the Fredericksburg Nationals (Single-A, Nationals).

Over this past offseason, the California native served as a fill-in radio play-by-play broadcaster for the San Francisco 49ers, calling games for his hometown NFL team.

Smith is a proud alumnus of the University of Southern California after graduating with a journalism degree last May. During his time as a Trojan, Smith was a Sports Co-Director at the school's student radio station, KXSC, providing play-by-play for USC football, baseball, basketball and volleyball, among other sports. As a culmination of his work in college, Smith was recognized as the winner of the 2025 Jim Nantz Award by the Sportscasters Talent Agency of America (STAA) and professionals in the industry, which honors "the nation's most outstanding collegiate sports broadcaster."

HITTING COACH - JASON HART

Hart begins his 13th full season with the Texas organization and his ninth as the Frisco hitting coach.

He served as the RoughRiders hitting coach from 2012-2019 before, most recently, serving as the Major League hitting assistant for the Miami Marlins under current Rangers manager Skip Schumaker.

In 2015, Hart was named the Mike Coolbaugh Texas League Coach of the Year for his work with the Riders hitters. Prior to joining Frisco, Hart spent two seasons as the hitting coach with Low-A Hickory. His tenure with the Rangers began after he assisted the Single-A Clinton staff with coaching responsibilities for a portion of the 2008 season and continued when he accepted the role of hitting coach for the Arizona Rangers before the 2009 campaign.

Hart played professionally for parts of eight seasons from 1998-2006, with stints in the Oakland, Texas and Minnesota organizations. He made his Major League debut with the Rangers in 2002, when he batted .267 (4-for-15) with three doubles over a span of 10 games. He missed the 2004 campaign following the removal of a benign brain tumor, but returned to the field in 2005 and hit 21 home runs in 128 games with Frisco.

Originally drafted by Oakland in the fifth round of the 1998 draft, Hart was acquired by Texas in a January 2002 trade with the Athletics. He attended Southwest Missouri State University, where he paced the conference in homers in 1997 and was named a Missouri Valley Conference All-Star in 1998.

IN REVIEW

2025 record: 73-63 (1st, Texas League South, +3.0 G)
First half: 38-30 (3rd, -0.5 GB) | Second half: 35-33 (2nd, -3.5 GB)

DIVISION CHAMPS, NO PLAYOFFS:

The RoughRiders finished with the best overall record in the Texas League South, but did not make the playoffs for the second time in the last five seasons (2021). Outside of 2021, which had a COVID-stipulated playoff change, it was the first time that a team won their division but missed the playoffs in the Texas League since 2017 (Springfield). The Riders missed the playoffs by half a game in the first half, falling to the San Antonio Missions in the second-to-last day of the half to be eliminated. In the second half, they trailed the Amarillo Sod Poodles by 3.5 games.

WALLY'S WORLD:

Rangers top prospect Sebastian Walcott showed out in his first full Double-A season in 2025. Last season, his walk rate of 12.7 percent was a career high while he struck out at just a 19.6 percent clip, a career low. By stealing his 32 bases, he joined an exclusive group as one of the only teenagers since 2005 to steal 30 or more in Double-A, joining Elvis Andrus (51, 2008), Jackson Chourio (43, 2023), Nelson Rada (35, 2024) and Mike Trout (31, 2011). Walcott (13 home runs, 32 steals) became the first Texas League teenager to have double-digit homers and 30-plus steals since Roberto Alomar in 1987 (12 HR, 43 SB with Wichita). Walcott participated in the Futures Game for the second season in a row over the All-Star Break, going 0-for-1 with a sacrifice fly and a groundout to shortstop while playing third base defensively. Walcott finished the season on a 12-game hitting streak, batting .391/.481/.500/.981 with eight walks to six strikeouts.

Sebastian Walcott was a staple in the Riders order, playing 124 of 136 games.

WALK IT LIKE HE TALKS IT:

When Aaron Zavala walked twice on July 18th, he collected his 207th career walk in a RoughRiders uniform to break the all-time franchise record, previously held by Guilder Rodriguez. Making it much more impressive, Zavala accomplished the feat in 312 games with a 15.1 percent walk rate over four seasons (2022-2025) while Rodriguez needed 524 RoughRiders games from 2009-2015 (still the franchise record for most games played) and a 9.8 percent walk rate. Zavala finished the season with a total of 222 bases on balls in his RoughRiders career and a career walk rate of 14.5 percent (league average is between 8.5-9.0 percent). In addition to the walks record, the University of Oregon product also finished the season second in franchise history in runs scored (199), third in RBIs (168) and doubles (58) and fourth in games played (351).

DEBUTS ON DEBUTS:

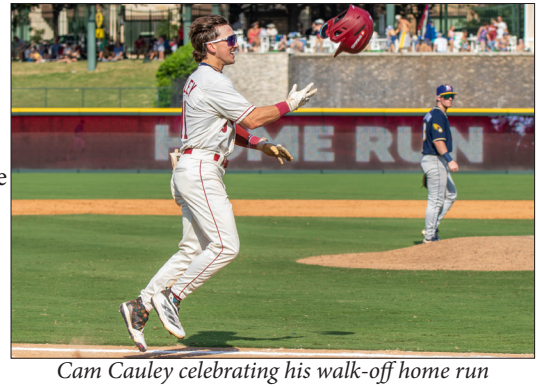
In 2025, 10 former RoughRiders made their MLB debuts, starting with Liam Hicks on March 28th with the Marlins. After Hicks, RHP Chase Lee (Tigers), RHP Zak Kent (Guardians), LHP Grant Wolfram (Orioles), RHP Tyler Owens (Tigers), 1B Blaine Crim (Rangers), OF Alejandro Osuna (Rangers), INF Cody Freeman (Rangers), INF Maximo Acosta (Marlins) and RHP Jose Corniell (Rangers) all debuted.

ATTENDANCE:

The Riders finished with the best attendance in the Texas League, averaging 5,724 fans per game. That mark was nearly 900 more fans per game than second-place Amarillo and also fifth in Double-A, trailing Richmond, Reading, Portland and Hartford.

FINALE TO REMEMBER:

Cameron Cauley finished off the season with an incredible game on September 14th against Northwest Arkansas. After doubling in the first, blasting a solo home run in the second and tripling in the fourth, Cauley was a single shy of the first cycle in RoughRiders franchise history. In the bottom of the ninth, Cauley came up with the game tied at 4-4 and a runner at second base, but instead of a single, he hammered a two-run walk-off home run, capping the season dramatically. On the day, he was 4-for-5 with three RBIs, three runs scored and four extra-base hits. The home runs gave him 15 on the season, tying his career high.



Cam Cauley celebrating his walk-off home run on September 14th, 2025

STARTING STRONG:

Frisco finished the season with the second-best starters ERA in the Texas League (4.04), trailing just Springfield. Mitch Bratt, who was traded mid-season to the Diamondbacks and finished with Amarillo, led Texas League starters with 146 strikeouts, (104 coming in a Frisco uniform). Kohl Drake, who was also traded at the deadline to Arizona, was second in the league in ERA (min.12 starts), posting a 2.44 ERA in 12 outings. Jose Corniell (0.45 ERA, six starts), Leandro Lopez (2.86 ERA, eight starts) and David Davalillo (2.98 ERA, 11 starts) also recorded ERAs under 3.00 for Frisco.

NOTABLE RULES AND REGULATIONS

NAME CHANGE: In 2020, the name "Texas League" was changed to "Double-A Central" by MLB. The change was coupled with the addition of two teams (Wichita Wind Surge, a Twins affiliate, and San Antonio Missions, a Padres affiliate), creating a 10-team league. Before the 2022 season, the name was changed back to the "Texas League".

ROSTER LIMIT: Texas League clubs may carry 28 active players for the entire championship season (regular season) and postseason.

PLAYOFF ROSTERS: Any player shall be eligible to participate in postseason play as long as he is assigned to a participating club in accordance with the rules of the Texas League and Minor League Baseball prior to the start of the first game of postseason play.

PLAYOFF FORMAT: The two half winners from each division qualify for the playoffs. The winners of the Texas League Division Series meet in the Texas League Championship Series. Both rounds involve best-of-three sets.

Should one team win both half seasons, they will play the team in their division with the next best overall record over the whole season in the Division Series. In this case the winner of both halves will host game one, two and, if necessary, game three.

TIEBREAKERS:
In the case of a first-half tie between two teams, the winner of the first head-to-head meeting in the second half will win the first half.

In the case of a second half tie, the tiebreakers are as follows:
1. Head-to-head record in the second half
2. Record in the teams' last 15 games
3. Record in the teams' last 16 games, etc.

CURFEW: The Texas League has no official curfew. Clubs must honor any local curfew or special time limit regulation.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: The Texas League uses the Major League suspended game rule 4.12, as printed in the Major League Rule Book. The rule states a game is suspended and must be completed at a future date when: a curfew imposed by law, a time limit permissible under league rules, light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under the control of the home club, darkness when law prevents lights from being turned on, weather and when a regulation game that is called when the score is tied.

*For the 2021 season, postseason was trimmed due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. The two teams with the two best records in the league played one, five-game series to decide a champion.

RULE 5 DRAFT HISTORY

The Rangers have had eight players drafted from their franchise in the Major League Baseball Rule 5 Draft since 2003. The Rule 5 Draft takes place at the winter meetings.

The selection order of the teams is based on each team's win–loss record from the prior regular season, as in the amateur draft, each round starting with the team with the worst record and proceeding in order to the team with the best record. If chosen in the Rule 5 draft, a player must be kept on the selecting team's major league active roster for the entire season that follows the draft.

Players are eligible for selection in the Rule 5 draft if they are not on their major league organization's 40-man roster and:

-were 18 or younger on the June 5 before their signing and its the fifth Rule 5 draft; or
-were 19 or older on the June 5 before their signing and its the fourth Rule 5 draft.

PERFECT GAMES AND NO-HITTERS

PERFECT GAMES

July 28, 2005 — A.J. Murray, Steve Karsay and Scott Feldman

Frisco 3 - Corpus Christi 0
Whataburger Field

Murray: 6 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 7 K
Karsay: 2 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 1 K
Feldman: 1 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 1 K

The trio combined for the first perfect game/no-hitter in franchise history, and just the third nine-inning perfect game in league history.

Nine-Inning Perfect Games, Texas League History

Ed Cole (Galveston Buccaneers)	July 10, 1935 vs. Tulsa
Dave Wilhelmi (Shreveport Captains)	May 4, 1983 vs. Arkansas
Murray/Karsay/Feldman (Frisco RoughRiders)	July 28, 2005 vs. Corpus Christi

April 19, 2011 — Martin Perez

Frisco 1 - Arkansas 0 (6 inn.)
Dickey-Stephens Park

Perez: 5 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 0 BB, 3 K

Severe thunderstorms and rain in North Little Rock terminated the contest early, giving Perez the shortened perfect game.

The Riders scored the game's only run in the top of the first inning on an RBI single from Tommy Mendonca.

NO-HITTERS

May 18, 2008 — Matt Harrison

Frisco 2 - San Antonio 0 (7 inn.)
Dr Pepper Ballpark

Harrison: 7 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 6 BB, 5 K

In the first game of a doubleheader against the Missions, Harrison walked away with the second no-hitter in Riders history, despite issuing a career-high six walks.

August 19, 2008 — Neftali Feliz and Trey Hodges

Frisco 7 - San Antonio 0 (6 inn.)
Wolff Stadium

Feliz: 5 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 2 BB, 3 K
Hodges: 1/3 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 0 BB, 1 K

Making just his eighth career Double-A start, 20-year-old Neftali Feliz worked 5 hitless innings before reaching his pitch count limit and yielding to Trey Hodges. Hodges struck out the only man he faced before rain washed out the remainder of the game.

July 29, 2011 — Joe Wieland

Frisco 3 - San Antonio 0
Wolff Stadium

Wieland: 9 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 1 BB, 7 K

Wieland kept the Missions at bay all night, facing the minimum en route to history.

Two days after no-hitting San Antonio, Wieland joined the Missions following a trade that sent him to San Diego for Mike Adams.

May 7, 2025 — Kohl Drake, Ryan Lobus, Skylar Hales

Frisco 6 - San Antonio 1
Wolff Stadium

Drake: 6 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 2 BB, 6 K
Lobus: 1.1 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 3 BB, 1 K
Hales: 1.2 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 1 BB, 2 K

The RoughRiders threw a combined no-hitter on an Education Day (11:05 am first pitch time) in San Antonio. The Missions scored their one run on a bases-loaded HBP in the eighth inning.

Both Drake and Hales were traded at the deadline later that season.
